I have been here in Bergen now for 2 months. I continue to witness to and pray for the Norwegians that I meet. I have until the end of June before my visa expires and must return to the States. From there I will be arranging my next step, and be visiting as many of you as possible.

A young lady has come to stay at the airbnb who is Norwegian born but of Vietnamese parentage. Her boyfriend, who was also Norwegian born and of Vietnamese parents, then came to visit her, so I had a good opportunity to talk to both of them. She has a Catholic background and he is Buddhist. She listened well and I was able to explain how they could know for sure that they were going to Heaven when they died. He was not as interested but polite. They are both from Oslo, and she has a work training program from her company here in Bergen for about a month and he was here to visit her for a weekend. He has returned to Oslo and she will stay here until the 23rd of June before returning to Oslo. Pray for Vivien and Johnny. 20 and 22 yrs old respectively.

The landladies here, two elderly sisters, are socialist/communists and after a fairly brief discussion did not want to talk about God or religion. Pray for Marit and Birthe.

The workers at the grocery store where I do all of my food shopping are very nice and one has shown some interest in God, another not so much, etc. They are all young people, but for me now, that's just about everybody I meet.

One week from today, next Friday, the 14th, I will be going to Paris to visit our church in Maisons-Laffitte for a long weekend and will preach for them. This coming Sunday, they are having two baptisms. One is Axel, a friend of the son, Nanau, of Bobby (mom) and Julien (dad) who Nanau invited to church and where he got saved, and the other man, Damien, was already saved but looking for a good church and lives in a nearby town where one of our faithful members lives and wrote to me here in Norway having gotten my address through some missionary website. He is in his 40's I think and will be joining our church there upon baptism as well.

The pictures below were taken on Constitution Day, 17 May, similar to our Independence Day, just a five minute walk from my door.

In and for Jesus Christ,
Bill

and show thee great and mighty things which thou knowest not." Jer. 33:3
