Serving in Porto Alegre, Brazil

Dear praying friends,

This past week we purchased our tickets and are heading back to Brazil. The one challenging aspect in looking at flights was where to fly into. We were able to get the airport in the state above us which is approximately six hours to our city. After thinking through and looking at different possibilities for finishing out the remainder of the trip, we found a company that would take us with our luggage directly to our house. We are glad to have that resolved!

It was a blessing to not only be stateside to be with family but to also graduate with my Masters in Biblical Counseling! What a blessing (and challenge) this journey has been and it was amazing to have several family members there to commemorate this day with me.

A few weeks later, my niece, Cami, graduated from Utah School for the Deaf and the Blind; and this past Sunday, my nephew, Giovany, followed the Lord in believer's baptism.

Now to the task before me—discerning the Lord's direction in helping those in Brazil who have suffered loss and introducing them to the One Who can meet their primary need: Jesus!

Thank you for your continued prayers!
