

Praises

Our first Evangelism and Discipleship Conference, as well as our first Saturday morning outreach breakfast, were well-attended, and the church is moving forward in reaching its Jerusalem.

The conference in Panama went well, and we had a refreshing time before heading back to Chile.

Prayer Requests

That many will come and be saved at Joy Baptist Church.

We have an outreach for married couples, as well as Easter. Pray it will be a fruitful time.

A couple of months ago, we put together the calendar for the church and designated March as the month for our Evangelism and Discipleship Conference at Joy Baptist. Some of us that have been going to church ever since we were born understand the ideas of evangelism and discipleship, but for those who don't come from that kind of background, it's all new. We decided to have a Saturday morning breakfast, followed by a couple of sessions on the importance of the Great Commission and evangelism. Then, on Sunday, I taught a lesson on discipleship, and later Sebastian taught a practical course on going out soul winning.

The following week, we had our first monthly outreach breakfast. My home church does this, where once a month they'll have a big breakfast before going out for visitation in the morning, and I really like it. We had a typical Chilean breakfast before going out together as well. I was excited that five people from the church showed up for it, as well as those of us in leadership. Rafael, whom I mentioned in the last prayer letter, has been coming at other times as well to help with outreach.

In the middle of the month, those of us at our mission board serving in Latin American countries went to Panama City for a regional conference that we have every two years. There's always teaching on subjects that are relevant to the ministries we're involved in, and it's encouraging as well as useful as we seek advice or ideas on various issues.

At Joy Baptist, we continue to move forward, excited by all that God is doing. We pray that this will be a great month filled with many blessings from the Lord. Thank you again as always for your prayers and support for us. God bless you!
